Mrs. Kimball's life was spent in doing good to her fellow men and we can only hope that her tender sympathy to this poor bereaved congregation.

A sudden attack of peritonitis seized the dear Mrs. Grace E. Kimball, wife of Dr. H. H. Kimball, yesterday at her family home, 219 East Twenty-fourth street. Mrs. Kimball was active in club and social work, and beloved by a large circle of friends. The entire household in which Mrs. Kimball resided is plunged in sorrow over her sudden and untimely demise. Mrs. Kimball was the daughter of the late Dorcas Merriam, one of the wealthiest and most prominent, politically and commercially of the early Minneapolis. She was 23 years of age, and had lived in Minneapolis since her fourth year when she was brought to this city by her parents. Most of her life was a healthy one and an active one, making her sudden death the great shock because of its unexpectedness. The only relatives surviving Mrs. Kimball are her husband and a brother, Chester Merriam. Burial services will be held at the parlors Monday at 2 o'clock. The family requests that no flowers be sent.

COUNTRY STABILITY.

It is said, and it is true, that it takes the presence of danger to test the courage of men; and it is then those worth while come forward to do duty and perform great deeds.

There are always certain sections of the country in which the men of valor live, and it generally proves to be the regions where men and women are surrounded by natural conditions. Great statesmen, great commanders, and the noblest men and women of all nations have been drawn from the rural districts. It is in the country and villages that the sturdy characters are moulded.

Even in the matter of the late financial flurry, the superiority of country over city men was easily seen. It was largely, almost wholly, in the cities that men became panic stricken and precipitated a money crisis that might have involved the country in far reaching disaster.

In the country, particularly in this grand old county of Oxford, there was no undue excitement. Men and women viewed the situation calmly, and were not jarred by the storm that swept their city brothers and sisters out to sea.

The good common sense and sturdy character of the people prevented any bank runs, and the hills that guard almost every Oxford village were hardly more secure in their places than were the financial institutions of this country.

There are other like communities throughout the State and country and to the courage of the people of these sections is due the salvation of business credit, and the banking system.

Had that recently discharged inmate of the Bethel hospital, who entered the Massachusetts State House last week and shot three men, succeeded in his original purpose, (for Guild would doubtless have been among his victims) the fact that this man was known to possess delusions which gave him the impression that he was being persecuted together with the fact that he was first committed to an insane asylum for attempted murder should have prevented his release from the asylum last month.

What's the matter with New England? There were quoted in Boston city last week at $1.25 per bushel and the same one box of navy beans was quoted at $2.75 per bushel.

Vinol

No one wants an old-fashioned cod liver oil preparation or emulsion, because Vinol is a much better body-builder and strength creator for old people, weak children, and for coughs, colds, bronchitis, etc. If it does no good we will return your money.

The one recommendation of Vinol is that it is the only one that is pure and clean.

MANONIO INSTALLATION.

Public Entertainment and Supper Thursday Evening.

A public installation of the officers of Bethel Lodge F. & A. M. was held at 10 P. M. last Thursday evening. All Manions and their families were invited and over fifty were present when the tables were spread in the dining hall below.

Dr. J. H. Wright, W. M.

Mr. P. H. Merrill, S. W.

Mr. A. Vanderkolk, J. W.

Mr. D. O. Loring, S. D.

Mr. F. L. Edwards, J. D.

Mr. E. H. Young, S. S.

Mr. H. C. Jones, S. S.

Mr. D. E. Richardson, M.

Mr. J. H. Burrows, Chap.

Mr. J. C. Pratt, S. S.

Mr. W. C. Garry, S. S.

Mr. H. M. Farwell, T.

During the installation a musical program was interspersed, all of which was very appreciable and highly enjoyed. The program was as follows:

Songs by Mrs. E. E. Kilburn, Reading by Mrs. A. C. Pratt, Solo by Mrs. H. Wright, and Reading by Mrs. A. Vanderkolk.

Manions have long been noted for having a fondness for good food. It was known that the Manions had an abundance of that kind ready for setting before and naturally little time was lost in getting into the dining hall for the purpose of food.

None were disappointed. Four heavily laden tables were in readiness and as far as the table was able to serve, between 100 and 150 people were seated to the satisfaction of their guests.

When all had eaten their fill, though the 100 or more had been enlarged for the occasion, Worshipful Master Wright assumed to the audience that he had retired early to his death.

Also, were, upon the mention of these names, going to favor their friends with a toast. It is safe to say that the cheer from the Manions was the loudest cheer of the evening. None knew any stories to tell, or if they did, they forgot them at that point.

Some of the men told them on such an extended stomach. All quailed and some went down in sight were defeated but the general approach to a feast from anyone was a song sung by the Manions. Another J. H. Burrows, brother Burrows, always brings the house down, and this was no exception. The rest of us were a lot of jokes of the brother and would have liked to have been able to have brought down the house too, but he had it down and we were done for.

During the Manions' brother's speech he made the occasion a very pleasant one and all were backward to give him the cheer.

LADIES' CLUB.

Last Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Club met with Mrs. P. H. Merrill and it was made the occasion of a farewell to the pastor, Rev. C. M. Gleason and family who leave this week for their new home in Hallowell, N. H. When the work of the afternoon had been finished the ladies were invited to the attractive dining room where the hostess served dainty and delicious refreshments being assisted by her daughter, Miss Merrill, Mrs. Pashard and Miss Mabel Gleason. Mrs. Gleason has been the efficient president of the Ladies' Club during her stay of five years in Bethel and as an expression of their love and appreciation the ladies presented her with a dozen silver forks. Rev. Mr. Gleason acknowledged the gift most graciously and commended the Ladies' Club for its cheerful response whenever asked for aid in the church work, financially and otherwise. Mrs. Gleason has been a very helpful member of the Club as well as its president, always manifesting a deep interest in all its lines of work and will be much missed.

Mr. Gleason and family will carry to their new home the brightest good wishes of their Bethel friends.

To save money on your Christmas shopping read King's advertisement, and buy your gifts there.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Last Saturday being the first anniversary of little Clifford Everett Merrill, a very pretty little birthday party was enjoyed by the little fellow.

Those invited to extend their congratulations were Donald Young, Marguerite Stanley, Cellistine Flynt, Vivian Wright and Jessie Coburn, each of them brought the little host a nice present. Nice presents were also sent in by several others.

Very nice refreshments, including a birthday cake were served and all present had an afternoon to be remembered long.

CHRISTMAS SALE.

The Ladies' Club will hold the annual Christmas Sale at Garland Chapel Thursday afternoon and evening. The ladies have made a special effort to furnish the tables with articles that will appeal to those who are planning to make presents to their friends. Remember only twelve days will remain before the merry Christmas and those using Uncle Sam's mail as a means of carrying his Christmas packages are reminded that if they wait until the eleventh hour, much delay and possible loss will result, so remember this—Dec. 12, is some too early for your purchases.

The candy table will be unusually inviting with its varied home made sweets. At six o'clock supper will be served and you are cordially invited to come and get a ticket for twenty-five cents which will entitle you to a first class supper.

Come and see the pretty Christmas gifts even if you don't intend to purchase and you may possibly find the very article you have wished to give your friend but for want of time have not got it off your list.

All will be welcome at Garland Chapel Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Dec. 12.

HOME FOR FEEBLE MINDED FOR ANDOVER.

Oxford County Would Be Benefited.

The movement in Andover that is being pushed to obtain the Home for the Feeble Minded for that town in one that should interest the whole county in its behalf.

That town has many features that make it a desirable location for an institution of the kind. It is not only one of the most healthy spots in Maine, but the character of the people guarantees the proper moral influence that it is necessary to surround the inmates of such an asylum with.

It is not enough that the unfortunate who are to be inmates of the institution have a place to eat and sleep but their lives should be free from the annoyances and excitement of a city; and whatever freedom the various individuals may be given ought to be amidst natural environments that would not encourage or foster weakness or viciousness.

Andover by reason of its distance from large cities and because of the high class character of its population, possesses these qualifications; and they should be made a leading feature in the campaign for the requirement of the institution for the town.

The county would be greatly benefited by the establishment of the home within its limits, and the movement should command the active support of the leading men of the county.

There are several places in Andover any one of which would make an ideal site for the home, and it is thought the price of them will be made an object to the state.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, procured catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore require constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally to doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. We offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
